Inspirational reception. Passionate welcome.

The Cumberland is a world-class hotel filled with original sculpture, paintings and other pieces that make it a work of art in itself. Complement this with outstanding dining, a destination bar, luxury bedrooms as well as the highest levels of service and it's an experience that will leave you truly inspired.

Rooms & Suites

- 1019 bedrooms including mini suites, apartments and special access rooms, each containing unique works of art.
- The superbly appointed bathrooms in our suites and apartments have separate baths and power showers, complemented by luxury toiletries.
- Each of our bedrooms has thick comfortable mattresses, pure Egyptian cotton bed linen, sumptuous bathrobes and a 32-inch LCD satellite television.
- Early check in from 10am and late check out at 4pm.
- Electronically coded safes, which can contain a laptop.

Restaurants & Bar

- Gary Rhodes' Michelin Star award-winning Rhodes W1 Restaurant is The Cumberland's flagship restaurant, one of the most desirable places to eat in London.
- A relaxed attitude is the defining character of our Brasserie, Gary Rhodes' second restaurant within the hotel, serving coffee, light lunches and evening meals.
- The Market has the choice of five open kitchens serving everything from breakfast cooked to order, mid-morning coffee and pastries to a full three-course evening meal.
- Our Kua Bar offers comfy sofas and a laid-back atmosphere in a secluded corner of the hotel.
- Shoreditch comes to W1 at Carbon. Listen to top DJs from just after work to well after midnight Monday to Saturday.

Meetings & Events

- 26 meeting rooms, the largest of which, the stunning Ocean Room, seats 300 theatre style.
- Meeting rooms are grouped into three themed zones with their own dedicated break out areas.
- Each zone contains rooms that can be laid out and configured to suit your needs precisely.
- BT Openzone wireless internet throughout the hotel.
- Full conference facilities, dedicated service and the finest attention to detail.
- Dedicated team on hand to help you with every aspect of your event from start to finish.
- A choice of menus and seating plans to suit your event .

Landmark. Location.

Many places consider themselves 'the heart of London'. But we have a stronger claim than most. Park Lane, Oxford Street, Mayfair – some of the capital's most illustrious addresses are right on our doorstep. And the hotel has been part of The Knowledge for longer than anyone can remember. The Cumberland is a perfect base from which to discover London's unique heritage. After all, we're part of it.
